Local Nonprofits Offer Uncommon Experiences to Raise Essential Funds

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Cincinnati, OH - (July 6, 2020) – Everything But the House (EBTH) announced today a very special EBTH Cares effort that opens their online auction platform in support of ArtsWave, the engine for the region's arts and several of the Queen City's cultural assets.

Cincinnati's arts sector was one of the first local industries hit economically by the health crisis and is predicted to be one of the last to recover, with museums just beginning to open and large venues closed, impacting performances. Starting Wednesday, July 8, local shoppers will have the opportunity to help the arts by bidding in support of ArtsWave and more than 40 Cincinnati nonprofit arts organizations, with proceeds directly benefiting their respective organizations. Each nonprofit has crafted one-of-a-kind Uncommon Experiences to shine a light on their creativity and love for their organization's purpose. The auction will close on Sunday, July 12 at 8 pm.

In a show of support for the region's arts and ArtsWave's role in guiding the sector, EBTH will distribute 100% of all sale proceeds directly to the nonprofits to keep them and their employees strong in these challenging times.

ArtsWave President & CEO Alecia Kintner is appreciative of all that EBTH is doing to help ArtsWave and the arts throughout the region, mentioning "It's through partners like EBTH and others that our arts organizations are going to be able to weather this financial challenge and return strong down the road, impacting our region through the vibrancy they bring."

"We are proud to partner with ArtsWave and many of Cincinnati's iconic institutions for the arts to shine a spotlight on what they do best while connecting with EBTH shoppers Uncommon Experiences not typically accessible to the public" said Brian Graves, co-founder, EBTH. "We are excited to donate the use of our services and technology while providing access to our online community to amplify the voice and awareness of the arts in our hometown."

EBTH is Cincinnati's very own animator of the uncommon. As the region's premier full-service consignment resource for homeowners, collectors, dealers and businesses their online marketplace features a never-ending supply of unique jewelry, timepieces, art, décor, memorabilia, vehicles, and fashion accessories, catering to a global following of tastemakers looking to add dimension and livable history to their lives.

Besides ArtsWave, curious bidders will have the chance to peruse top-notch experiential selections from nonprofits like 4-Way, Baker Hunt Arts/Cultural Center Cincinnati's String Quartet, ArtsConnect, Behringer-Crawford Museum, Cincinnati Art Museum, Cincinnati Arts Association, Cincinnati Ballet, Cincinnati Boychoir, Cincinnati Chamber Orchestra, Cincinnati May Festival, Cincinnati Memorial Hall Society, Cincinnati Playhouse in the Park, Cincinnati Shakespeare Company, Contemporary Arts Center, Ensemble Theatre Cincinnati, Manifest Research Gallery and Drawing Center, Music Resource Center, My Nose Turns Red Youth Circus, Pones, Pyramid Hill Sculpture Park & Museum, Taft Museum of Art, The Children's Theatre of Cincinnati, The Nancy & David Wolf Holocaust & Humanity Center, The Perfect Brew, and The Well.
