Part I, Line 2:

ArtsWave traditionally offers three types of funding for arts organizations: sustaining impact, catalyzing impact grants, and restricted grants. Sustaining impact grants are available to provide support to arts organizations in our region whose work aligns with ArtsWave's blueprint for collective action. These grants range from $3,000 to over $1 million and are renewable for two additional years contingent upon ArtsWave's successful fundraising efforts and the organization meeting the requirements. Four different grantmaking committees comprised of community volunteers are responsible for the review of annual applications or interim reports. Committee members meet annually with all sustaining impact organizations. A community investment committee, also comprised of community volunteers, receives input from the grantmaking committees and makes recommendations for sustaining impact grants amounts. The board approves the sustaining impact grants in June each year. These grants are paid out in monthly, quarterly or semiannual installments depending on the size of the grant. Catalyzing impact grants support special, onetime events or projects that complement or expand upon the regular cultural programming of the applying organization. Another committee comprised of community volunteers reviews catalyzing impact grant applications. The committee makes recommendations for catalyzing impact grant amounts to the executive committee for approval periodically throughout the year. ArtsWave distributes the award amount to recipients of project grants after their acceptance and submission of the organization's top three objectives and proposed results. Those objectives and results are then compared to the actual results, submitted at the conclusion of the project, which help document the project's outcomes. Restricted grants are made in accordance with donors' wishes and align with community priorities in order to amplify impact and create results by working in partnership with others.

Part IV Supplemental Information
